

OpenJam

A blockchain-based collaborative ecosystem for amateur and independent musicians

How do we innovate?

A new music streaming and streaming platform

- Specialized in independent music.
- A new source of income: tips from the public.
- New co-creation space without borders.

IPR protection by Blockchain

- Simplification and acceleration of the declaration of authorship of a piece of work.
- Better assessment of the actual distribution of compositional work.

An Open-source project for the Community

- The project belongs to a foundation and not to a private company.
- A transparent project where everyone can get involved.

State-of-the-art technologies

- A Web 3.0 project using Blockchain, WebAssembly, WebAudio API...
- A project for and with the community
